About Trefethen Family Vineyards

Trefethen Family Vineyards is one of Napa's pioneering wineries. Founded in 1968, Janet and John Trefethen helped define what the Napa Valley is today. On the eve of the winery's 50th Anniversary, John and Janet have begun sharing leadership responsibilities with the next generation, their children, Hailey and Lorenzo Trefethen.

As one of Napa's only surviving wooden gravity flow wineries from the 19th century, Trefethen's distinctive pumpkin-colored structure is truly one of a kind. Designed by the leading California winery architect of the 1800s, Hamden McIntyre, it was awarded a listing on the National Register of Historic Places in 1987. The Trefethen family has lovingly restored the building twice, once soon after they acquired it in 1968, and once more following the 2014 earthquake. The recent work includes a full seismic retrofit, however, the look and feel of the building is still authentic 19th-century, maintaining the original floor plan and beautiful redwood siding throughout. Under soaring ceilings, visitors will savor this piece of Napa Valley's history, as they taste stellar wines that have been made within the walls of this historic landmark.

Five decades later, this Napa legend remains family owned and committed to the craft of 100% estate grown wines. With a 50-year history of hospitality, every experience at Trefethen offers an immersion into the colorful history of the Napa Valley and its world-class vineyards and wines. The winery is located at 1160 Oak Knoll Avenue, and a variety of tastings are available daily. For more information, please contact the winery at 866.895.7696 or visit www.trefethen.com.
