Veranda Flights

The philosophy behind the selections for the flights is to expose you to varying styles of liquors from different regions. We want to take you on a trip through these regions via a glass and experience the differences in these liquors from location to location. Whether they are different kinds of spirits from Japan, different types of scotch throughout the country of Scotland, or Rums from all over the world, places such as South America, The Caribbean, and Jamaica; we want you to experience firsthand the differences in taste profiles side by side.
