60th Anniversary Cocktails

Millennium Star

An exclusive diamond martini with an exquisite garnish. Named after the only diamond in the world that is rated both internally and externally flawless.

stoli elite, carpano vermouth, australian orange bitters caviar stuffed olive, cocktail onion, champagne gelée enhanced with diamond shimmer

Ocean Dream

This modern twist on the classic Grasshopper is named after the 5.51 ct Ocean Dream Diamond, the first and only natural diamond known to possess a blue-green hue, making it one of the rarest in the world.

crème de mint, dorda coconut liquor, fernet branca, coconut milk served frozen

Pink Sunrise

A gimlet inspired by the intense pink colored, 29.78 ct heart-shaped diamond, the Pink Sunrise.

empress butterfly pea flower gin, falernum, fresh lime, giffard lichi-li

The Florentine

The Thomas Margarita is the inspiration for this cocktail with the color of The Florentine Diamond, a 137.27 ct double rose cut, yellow diamond whose whereabouts have become a mystery.

xicarú mezcal, giffard vanilla de madagascar, fresh lime, agave, smoked kiawe salt

The French Blue

A nod to the cocktail that first became popular during the early days of the Kahala, The Blue Hawaii. Just like the Kahala and the Blue Hawaii, The French Blue, aka Hope Diamond, is an infamous piece of history with an amazing story.

selvarey white rum, pau vodka, bols blue curacao, ginger, fresh lime finished with a white orchid, symbolic of strength, beauty, love and luxury
