THE KAHALA HOTEL & RESORT WELCOMES KERRY KUHL AS DIRECTOR OF SALES

HONOLULU, May 8, 2025 — The Kahala Hotel & Resort is pleased to announce that Kerry Kuhl has joined its executive team as director of sales for the iconic 338-room luxury hotel.

Kuhl brings more than three decades of hospitality industry experience, including sales leadership roles with hotels in both Hawai'i and on the mainland. She began her career at the Maui Marriott in a pre-opening operations role before moving into sales. In 1990, she became Marriott's first-ever remote sales manager, based in California and supporting Hawai'i properties.

In Hawai'i, Kuhl served as senior sales manager at the Prince Hotel Maui and Stouffer Wailea, now known as Andaz Maui at Wailea Resort. On the mainland, she held director of sales and marketing roles at Le Rivage Hotel & Spa in Sacramento, The Oasis at Death Valley and Hotel Winters in Northern California.

Kuhl previously worked at The Kahala Hotel & Resort from 2014 to 2018 as director of national accounts, representing the resort in the North and Southwestern U.S., Western Canada and the entertainment market.

“I have always held The Kahala close to my heart,” said Kuhl. “This place is truly special, and I’m so very happy to be back.”

Her return reflects both her longstanding connection to the property and her proven ability to deliver results in competitive markets.

“We are thrilled to welcome Kerry back to The Kahala,” said Joe Ibarra, general manager of The Kahala Hotel & Resort and vice president of Resorttrust Hawai‘i. “Following our 60th anniversary, a multimillion-dollar room refresh and being named the No. 1 hotel in Hawai‘i in Condé Nast Traveler’s Readers’ Choice Awards, Kerry’s experience and connection to the resort make her the perfect person to lead our sales efforts into the future.”
