THE KAHALA HOTEL & RESORT ANNOUNCES TITLE SPONSORSHIP OF RENOWNED LOCAL CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Tickets Available for World Music Day Piano Trio Concert

HONOLULU, May 18, 2023— The Kahala Hotel & Resort is proud to once again serve as the title presenting sponsor of the Hawai'i Chamber Music Festival (HCMF) for three consecutive years. The festival, which runs June 14-24, will present seven concert events in the Ellen Masaki 'Ohana Series celebrating Global Expressions and feature numerous local collaborations to commemorate World Music Day and the 70th anniversary of the Masaki School of Music. From wine tasting to thematic food pairings, attendees can enjoy an impressive cast of talent and a variety of unique experiences at signature locations across Honolulu.

On Wednesday, June 21, The Kahala will host festival headliners violinist Stefan Jackiw, cellist Michael Nicolas, and pianist Sean Kennard as they perform piano trios celebrating World Music Day. The event is open to the public and tickets are available online at www.givebutter.com/worldmusic. Attendees can also use promo code "MASAKI" for 20% off their tickets.

"The Kahala Hotel & Resort is committed to supporting the arts in Hawai'i through our Kahala Initiative for Sustainability, Culture and the Arts (KISCA) program," said Joe Ibarra, general manager of The Kahala Hotel & Resort. "We are thrilled to be the title presenting sponsor of the Hawai'i Chamber Music Festival and to host this special concert celebrating World Music Day. We hope our guests and the community will join us for this unforgettable evening of music."

About the Hawai'i Chamber Music Festival

Founded in 2018, the Hawai'i Chamber Music Festival (HCMF) is devoted to using the significance of music. World class artistry collaborating with talented students create unforgettable memories and relationships. HCMF is dedicated to lifting the hearts and talents of Hawai'i's incredible youth musicians through positive mentorship and musicianship. With partnerships in our local 'ohana, HCMF is especially committed to making a positive impact on our community while exposing our musicians to the aloha spirit that is vibrant in our islands.
